

FSCH Seasonal Walks from May 2009

Seasonal walks for members only (charge £2) are informal guided walks every quarter which last about an hour starting from Marlow Drive and followed by a cup of tea at the Hall on the Hill.

Walks to end 2011 - led (and illustrated) by David Mariner

May 2009

Walk to top of hill to examine how and where sand and gravel extraction took place.

Aug 2009

Walk along base of hill and then to southern viewpoint to view Purbecks.

Nov 2009 cancelled due to bad weather.

Feb 2010

Walk to Trig point at Blackwater Hill to view Stour valley and Hurn Court House.

May 2010

Walk around St. Catherine's Hill to look at the different shapes of the trees.

Aug 2010

Walk to the top of the hill to examine the sites of tumuli.

Nov 2010

Walk to southern end of hill to note where Oak trees are to be found and examine their size and Age.

Feb 2011 cancelled due to bad weather.

May 2011

Ponds on St Catherine's Hill

Aug 2011

Heather on St Catherine's Hill

Nov 2011

A "New Look"

Feb 2012 Robin Harley took walk and talked about management of the site.
Mar 2012 David Mariner - The Aircraft Guidance Towers on St.Catherine's Hill
Aug 2012 Jade North - Colours and sounds on St.Catherine's Hill
Nov 2012 Sue Newman and Mike Tizzard

Feb 2013 David Mariner - Gravel Extraction on St.Catherine's Hill
This was a repeat of the May 2009 walk